Students are solely responsible for withdrawing from college whether they attend class or not. Students who find it necessary to totally withdraw from college should first consult with a faculty adviser or counselor. Official withdrawal from all classes requires completion of the CCS Official Withdrawal Form or the student's written, signed and dated request.

Failure to follow the required procedures for withdrawal may result in failing grades being submitted; possible repayment of veteran benefits, financial aid, etc; and forfeiture of all claims for refund of tuition and fees.

* IEL/SFCC Students go to www.ccs.spokane.edu and click on class schedules.

Refund and withdrawal dates for classes which do not follow the regular college calendar are based on a proportionate relationship to the length of a standard quarter. A list of these classes is available in the registration area.
