Instructor: Bradley A. Malone, PMP

PMP Bradley Malone is president of Twin Star Consulting Company, a project management and corporate transformation consulting company. Malone has managed numerous large hardware, software development, and integration projects and has directed many project management process implementation and improvement efforts for major corporations. He develops and instructs training courses in basic and advanced project management skills, team building, and facilitation. He leads project management audit teams for commercial and government clients and consults with a wide variety of customers on project and quality management implementation issues. Mr. Malone holds the Project Management Professional (PMP)® designation from Project Management Institute and is a certified Master Practitioner of Neuro-Linguistic Programming™.

Who we are

The Community Colleges of Spokane Center for Workforce & Continuing Education provides demand-driven continuing education classes with a focus on professional development, as well as customized corporate training solutions for business and industry in the Spokane area.

---

Center for Workforce & Continuing Education

2000 N Greene Street, MS 2158, Spokane WA 99217

509-533-8482 | ce@ccs.spokane.edu

www.ccs.spokane.edu/Workforce
Advanced Project Management

Successful project managers have a high ability to lead, inspire, and motivate. Enhance your project management skills through this highly interactive program that includes role playing, case studies, and focused exercises. Materials and approach are congruent with the PMBOK® Guide and PMI® best practice standards. Prior completion of Project Management: Competencies & Structure is strongly suggested.

Topics covered include:

- Developing high performance teams
- Managing organizational change
- Stakeholder analysis
- Capturing and fulfilling requirements
- Project estimation
- Scheduling in a matrix environment
- Proactive risk management
- And more!

Professional Development Units (42 PDUs) awarded upon completion.

Our instructor is a PMI® Registered Education Provider.

Project Management: Competencies & Structure

Get the practical and insightful knowledge you need to plan, execute, and close a project successfully. Your abilities as a project manager depend on understanding the competencies and structure of project management. Through discussion, facilitation, and practical exercises you will understand how to integrate and apply the PMBOK® Guide into effective processes for establishing priorities and proactively managing your projects.

Topics covered include:

- Define roles and responsibilities and understand the impact of different organizational structures and reward/recognition strategies
- Identify activities, establish logical relationships, estimate durations, and determine critical path activities
- Distinguish and apply quality planning, assurance, and control methods
- Understand the various types of communication, and learn different methods and formats for gathering and disseminating project information
- Foster effective communication and feedback
- Establish variance and change thresholds for scope, time, and cost control
- And more!

Professional Development Units (21 PDUs) awarded upon completion.

Our instructor is a PMI® Registered Education Provider.